[No. 5.

MUNICIPALITY OF MARYBOROUGH.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 20th December, 1893.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Local Government Act of 1878," "The Local Government Act Amendment Act of 1886," "The Health Act of 1884," and "The Health Act Amendment Act of 1886," been pleased to approve of the following By-laws made by the Council of the Municipality of Maryborough.

HORACE TOZER.

WHEREAS by "The Local Government Act of 1878," "The Local Government Act Amendment Act of 1886," "The Health Act of 1884," and "The Health Act Amendment Act of 1886," Councils of Municipalities are empowered to make By-laws for all or any of the purposes in the said Acts mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Council of the Municipality of Maryborough, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following By-laws shall be in force within the said Municipality from the date of the publication hereof:—

BY-LAW No. 1.

A BY-LAW OF THE SAID MUNICIPALITY, NUMBERED ONE, FOR THE REPEAL OF BY-LAWS OF THE SAID MUNICIPALITY.

Repeal of by-laws.

1. All by-laws and standing orders passed and in force in the Municipality of Maryborough are hereby repealed, except as to any operation already effected by or act done under any by-law, or as to any right, title, obligation, or liability already acquired or accrued under any such by-laws, and except as to By-law No. 20 of the said Municipality intitled "A By-law of the Municipality of Maryborough for regulating the supply and distribution of water from the Municipal Waterworks, and the rates and charges for water supply therefrom," published in the Queensland Government Gazette of the seventh day of November, 1891.

BY-LAW No. 2.

A BY-LAW OF THE SAID MUNICIPALITY, NUMBERED TWO, FOR REGULATING THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL, AND THE DUTIES OF THEIR OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, AND PRESERVING ORDER AT COUNCIL MEETINGS.

Commencement of business.

1. The Council shall commence business as soon after the time stated in the summons as there is a sufficient number of members in attendance to constitute a quorum.

When a quorum not present.

2. At all meetings of the Council when there is not a quorum of the members present in accordance with clause 136 of "The Local Government Act of 1878," or when the Council is counted out, such circumstance, together with the names of the members then present, shall be recorded in the minute book.

Attendance book.

3. The councillors attending each meeting of the Council shall sign their names in a book to be kept for that purpose, from which a list shall be prepared of the number of times each member has attended, and the same shall be published at the end of each municipal year.

Confirmation of minutes.

4. The minutes of any preceding meeting not previously confirmed shall, except in cases of "special orders" provided for in clause 138 of "The Local Government Act of 1878," be read as the first business at all meetings of the Council in order to their confirmation, and no discussion shall be permitted thereupon, except as to their accuracy as a record of the proceedings.

Order of business.

5. After the signing of the minutes as aforesaid, the order of business of an ordinary meeting shall be as follows, or as near thereto as practicable, but for the greater convenience of the Council at any particular meeting thereof, it may be altered by resolution to that effect:—

- (1) Reading of copies of letters sent by the authority of the Council;
- (2) Reading letters received, and considering and ordering therein;
- (3) Reception and reading of petitions and memorials;
- (4) Presentation of committee reports and their consideration;
- (5) Questions;
- (6) Orders of the day;
- (7) Motions of which previous notice has been given;
- (8) Consideration of tenders.

Presentation of petitions.

6. All petitions or memorials must be presented by one of the aldermen, who shall be responsible that they are couched in respectful language, and as far as possible make himself acquainted with the subject thereof before presenting the same; and the nature and prayer of every such petition or memorial shall be stated to the Council by the alderman presenting the same.

Petitions.

7. On the presentation of a petition, no action shall take place thereon, and the only question that shall be entertained on the occasion of its presentation shall be "that it be received," and if necessary, "that its consideration stand an order of the day for some future meeting."

Consideration of reports.

8. If in a report of a committee there are distinct recommendations, the sense of the Council may be taken separately on each, and such report may be amended by the Council in any manner they may think fit, or such report may be referred back to the committee for further consideration.

Orders of the day.

9. The orders of the day shall include all matters arising out of the proceedings of former meetings of the Council, and any business which the mayor may think fit to bring under consideration.

Notice of motion, when to be given.

10. Notice of all motions shall be given in writing to the town clerk at least four clear days previous to the meeting at which the same is to be taken into consideration, and all such notices of motion shall be considered in the order in which they are given.

Notices of motions—Absence of mover.

11. In the absence of any member who has placed a notice of motion on the paper, such motion shall be deferred till the next regular meeting of the Council, and if not then moved the motion shall lapse and be struck off the paper accordingly: Provided, however, that any member present may move the said motion.

Withdrawal of notices.

12. No motion after being placed on the orders of the day shall be withdrawn without the consent of the Council.

How meetings to be convened.

13. The mayor may call a meeting of the Council as often as he shall think proper, by notice as prescribed by section 139 of "The Local Government Act of 1878," and if the mayor shall refuse or delay to call any such meeting after receiving a requisition for that purpose, signed by at least two aldermen, they may call a meeting of the Council by giving like notice as aforesaid, signed by themselves, stating therein the business proposed to be transacted.

Notice of business to be given.

14. Except as herein provided, no business shall be brought before the Council unless notice of such business shall have been given to each of the aldermen by summons in the usual way.

Business for special meeting.

15. The business-paper for each special meeting shall contain only such matters as shall have been specially ordered by the mayor to be considered.

ORDERS OF DEBATEMotions to be seconded.

16. No motion shall be debated unless and until it be seconded.

Amendment may be moved.

17. When a motion in Council shall have been made and seconded, any alderman shall be at liberty to move an amendment thereon, but no such amendment shall be debated unless and until it be seconded.

Motions and amendments to be in writing.

18. No motion or amendment shall be debated until it shall have been reduced into writing.

Only one amendment at a time.

19. No second or subsequent amendment shall be taken into consideration until the previous amendment shall have been disposed of.

Further amendment may be moved on amended question.

20. If an amendment be carried, the question as amended thereby shall become itself the question before the Council, whereupon any further amendment upon such question may be moved.

How subsequent amendments may be moved.

21. If any amendment, either upon an original question or upon any question amended as aforesaid, shall be negatived, then a further amendment may be moved to the question to which such first-mentioned amendment was moved, and so on: Provided that not more than one question and one proposed amendment thereof shall be before the Council at any one time.

Motions for adjournment.

22. No discussion shall be permitted on any motion for adjournment of the Council, and if, upon the question being put on any such motion, the same be negatived, the subject then under consideration, or next on the business-paper, shall be discussed; and it shall not be competent for any member to again move a motion for adjournment until half-an-hour shall have elapsed from the period of moving the one that has been negatived. On resuming any discussion which has been adjourned, the mover of such adjournment shall be entitled, if he has not already spoken on the subject under consideration, to speak first.

Duties of mayor as to correspondence.

23. The mayor shall have the same duty in reference to letters addressed to the Council, before directing the same to be read, as by clause 6 of this By-law is imposed on aldermen presenting petitions. The mayor shall direct as to the order in which all correspondence shall be read; and no letter addressed to the Council shall be presented or read by any alderman. If the mayor be absent, and shall not have examined such letters addressed to the Council, or given any directions as aforesaid, the duties imposed by this clause shall devolve upon the presiding alderman.

Letters sent not to be discussed, but every letter may be subject of motion.

24. No discussion shall be permitted in reference to any letters which shall have been sent by the mayor or town clerk, and copies of which may have been read to such Council: Provided, however, that any notice of motion consistent with good order may be entertained with reference to any such letters whether read or not, or with reference to any letters addressed to the Council which the mayor or presiding alderman may not have ordered to be read as aforesaid.

Town clerk to conduct correspondence.

25. The town clerk, under the direction of the mayor, shall conduct all correspondence on behalf of the Council, and all papers and documents shall pass through the town clerk's hands.

Town clerk to have charge of common seal and records.

26. The town clerk shall have charge of the common seal and all charters, deeds, plans, books, and records of the Council, or relating to the property thereof, and the same shall be kept in such place as the Council shall direct.

Limitation as to questions and statements.

27. No question or statement as to any matter under the jurisdiction or within the official cognizance of the Council requiring attention by the Council, or any of its committees or officers, shall be allowed to be put or made which is inconsistent with good order.

Notice to be given.

28. Sufficient notice of every question shall be given to the mayor, or presiding alderman expected to reply thereto, to allow for the consideration of such reply, and if necessary to refer to other persons or to documents.

Question to be put without argument.

29. Every such question shall be put without any argument.

Rights and objections and subsequent motion received.

30. No discussion shall be permitted as to any reply or refusal to reply to or as to any such statement at the time when such question is put, or such reply, or refusal to reply is given or such statement is made; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the taking of any objection as to any such question or statement being out of order, or shall prevent the discussion after due notice, as hereinafter provided, of any matters properly arising out of or relating to any such question, or reply, or refusal to reply, or to any such statement as aforesaid.

Mode of addressing Council, &c.

31. Every alderman who shall make or second any motion, or shall propose or second any amendment, or shall take part in any debate or discussion, or shall put or reply to any question, or shall make any statement, or shall, in any other way or for any other purpose, address observations to the Council, shall while so doing stand up within the bar of the Council chamber (unless he shall be prevented from so doing by bodily infirmity), and shall address himself to the mayor or other chairman then presiding, and all members of the Council shall, on all occasions when in such Council, address and speak of each other by their official designations as mayor, chairman, or alderman, as the case may be.

Speaker not to be interrupted if in order.

32. No alderman shall be interrupted while speaking, unless for the purpose of calling him to order as hereinafter provided.

Limitation as to number of speeches.

33. Every mover of an original motion shall have a right of general reply to all observations which may have been made in reference to any motion and to any amendments moved thereon, as well as the right to speak upon every such amendment. Every alderman other than the mover of such original motion shall have the right to speak once upon such motion, and once upon every amendment thereon. No alderman shall speak oftener than once upon any question, nor for longer than ten minutes at any one time, without the consent of the Council, unless when misrepresented or misunderstood, in which case he shall be permitted to explain, without adding further observations than may be necessary for the purpose of such explanation.

Mover and seconder.

34. An alderman who has moved any motion or amendment shall be considered to have spoken thereon; but any alderman who shall have seconded any such motion or amendment, without any further observation than that he seconded the same, shall be at liberty to speak once on every such motion or amendment.

Speaker not to digress.

35. No alderman shall digress from the subject under discussion, or make personal reflections on, or impute improper motives to, any other alderman.

Mayor to decide as to pre-audience.

36. If two or more aldermen rise to speak at the same time, the mayor or chairman shall decide which of such aldermen shall be first heard.

Alderman may require questions to be stated, &c., under certain restrictions.

37. Any alderman may request the question or matter under discussion to be read or stated for his information, or may require the production of any records of the Council bearing upon such question or matter which are readily accessible. Provided, however, that no such request or requisition shall be so made as to interrupt any other alderman when speaking, or materially to interrupt the discussion; also that if such request or requisition shall appear to the mayor or chairman not to have been made bona fide it shall not be complied with.

QUESTIONS OF ORDER.Mayor or chairman to decide points of order.

38. The mayor or chairman shall preserve order, and his decision on disputed points of order or practice shall be final, except questioned as in the manner hereinafter provided.

Acts of disorder.

39. Any member of the Council who shall commit a breach of any part of the By-law, or who shall move or attempt to move any motion or amendment embodying any matter as to which the Council has no legal jurisdiction, or who shall in any other way raise or attempt to raise any question, or shall address or attempt to address the Council upon any subject which the said Council has no legal right to entertain or to discuss, or who shall use any other language which according to the common usage of gentlemen would be held disorderly, or who shall say or do anything calculated to bring the Council into contempt, shall be out of order.

Mayor, &c., may call member to order.

40. The mayor or chairman may, without the intervention of any other member of the Council, call any alderman to order whenever, in the opinion of such mayor or chairman, there shall be a necessity for so doing.

Any member may raise question of order.

41. Every member of the Council shall have the right of calling the attention of the mayor or chairman to any motion, amendment, statement, argument, or observation moved, used, or made by any other member, which such first-named member may consider out of order.

Words objected to to be taken down.

42. When any member shall object to words used in a debate, and shall desire them to be taken down, the chairman shall direct them to be taken down by the town clerk accordingly.

Mode of proceeding thereon.

43. A member called to order shall immediately take his seat while the question of order is being discussed, unless specially permitted to offer an explanation, retraction, or apology, but on obtaining such special permission such member may explain, retract, or apologise for the matter or remark alleged to have been out of order; and if such explanation, retraction, or apology be deemed satisfactory, no further discussion on the question of order shall be permitted. If any member on being called to order shall ask such permission to explain, retract, or apologise as aforesaid, the mayor or chairman may, of his own authority, grant or refuse such permission as he may think fit, unless any member shall require the sense of the Council to be taken on this question. In such case it shall be the duty of the mayor or chairman to take the sense of the Council at once and without discussion as to whether such permission shall be granted. And when any such explanation, retraction, or apology shall have been made or offered by permission of the mayor or chairman, the latter shall in like manner decide or, if required so to do, shall take the sense of the Council as to whether such explanation, retraction, or apology is considered sufficient. If such permission be refused, or if such explanation, retraction, or apology be considered insufficient, the question of order shall be considered and decided before any further business is proceeded with. Provided that if the mayor or chairman shall have decided the question of order before any member shall have required the sense of the Council to be taken in reference thereto, such question of order shall not be re-opened. And provided further that nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the right of such mayor or chairman to decide finally, as hereinafter provided, upon any such point of order after the same shall have been discussed.

Decision of points of order.

44. The mayor or chairman, when called upon to decide points of order or practice, shall state the provision, rule, or practice which he shall deem applicable to the case without discussing or commenting upon the same.

Motions out of order to be rejected—Members to explain, retract, or apologise.

45. Whenever it shall have been decided as aforesaid that any motion, amendment, or other matter before the Council is out of order, the same shall be rejected; and whenever anything said or done in Council by any alderman shall be decided to be out of order, such alderman shall be called upon by the mayor or chairman to make such explanation, retraction, or apology as the case may require.

Penalties for persisting in disorderly conduct.

46. Any member of the Council who shall have been called to order, and who, after having been twice directed to take his seat as aforesaid, shall refuse to do so, or who shall persist in any line of conduct or argument, or in making observations which shall have been decided as aforesaid to be disorderly, or who shall refuse to make such explanation, retraction, or apology as aforesaid when required so to do, or who shall be guilty of any other act of disorder as defined in this By-law, and shall refuse to make such explanation, retraction, or apology as the majority of the aldermen then present shall consider satisfactory, shall be liable on conviction for the first offence to a penalty of not less than ten shillings nor more than five pounds, and on a second conviction for the like offence he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one pound nor more than ten pounds, and on a third or any subsequent conviction he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than two pounds nor more than twenty pounds.

Power of Council as to laying down general rules, &c.

47. Any alderman who is dissatisfied with the decision of the mayor or chairman on any such question of order or of practice may, by motion on notice respectfully worded, invite the Council to lay down a different rule or principle for the determination of any similar question of order or practice which may thereafter arise. Any rule or principle thus laid down shall be binding upon all parties unless and until it be rescinded, but shall have no retrospective operation: Provided, however, that nothing herein shall be held to bind any mayor or chairman to put any motion to the Council which, in his opinion, is contrary to law.

MODE OF VOTING.

How questions are to be put.

48. The mayor or chairman shall put to the Council all questions on which it shall be necessary that a vote be taken, and shall declare the sense of the Council thereon. And the mayor or chairman shall be at liberty to put any such question as often as may be necessary to enable him to form and declare his opinion as to the opinion of the majority.

Divisions.

49. Any alderman shall be at liberty to call for a division; in such case the question shall first be put in the affirmative, and then in the negative, and the aldermen shall vote by show of hands.

PROTESTS.

Mode of protesting—Protest to be recorded, but may, under certain circumstances, be expunged.

50. Every member of the Council (the mayor included) may protest against any resolution or vote of the Council; notice of the intention so to protest must, however, be given at the meeting when such resolution is passed, or such vote is arrived at, and the protest itself must be handed or sent to the town clerk not later than seven days after such notice. The town clerk shall enter every such protest in the minute book, but if in the opinion of the Council it be inconsistent with the truth, or disrespectfully worded, it may, by resolution on notice, be ordered to be expunged. In such case the expunction shall be made by drawing a perpendicular line with the pen through the entry of such protest, with a reference in the margin to the resolution ordering such expunction.

COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE COUNCIL.

All paddocks, grounds, lands, and enclosures used as grazing ground for dairy cattle shall, when necessary, be inspected by the inspector of nuisances or the health officer of the Municipality of Maryborough, or by any person authorised in writing by the mayor ; and if, on inspection, such paddocks, grounds, or enclosures, or any one of them are or is likely, in the opinion of the officer or person so inspecting, to be prejudicial to the health, by affecting the milk or otherwise, the Maryborough Municipal Council may, by an order in writing signed by the mayor, and served personally or left at the dwelling-house of the registered person, or in the case of an unregistered person served personally or left at his dwelling-place or posted upon the land, prohibit the use of the same for the purpose of feeding dairy cattle either absolutely or for any time named in such order. All cattle in dairies shall also be similarly inspected by a veterinary surgeon or other competent person, and any cows found to be diseased, or which from poverty or weakness are, in the opinion of the inspector, likely to be unfit for use for dairy purposes, shall be forthwith removed from such dairy if ordered by such inspector or other officer as aforesaid.

Saturday in every month. A special meeting shall, on the requisition of two members or the chairman, be called (by the clerk) at any time prescribed by the 130th section of the Act.

Notice of meetings.

(b.) Notice in the manner prescribed by the 130th section of the Act shall be given of every ordinary and every special meeting, and of every meeting adjourned for a time exceeding two days.

Minutes of proceedings—Rough entries.

2. (a.) In addition to the minute-book prescribed to be kept by the 133rd section of the Act a rough minute-book shall be kept, in which every item of business transacted by the Board at a meeting shall be then and there entered by the clerk, and subsequently re-entered by him in the manner prescribed by the Act.

Records to be verified.

(b.) Before reading the minutes at a meeting the clerk shall hand the rough minute-book to the chairman, in order that while the minutes are being read he may verify the record before signing the same on confirmation by the Board.

Committee records.

(c.) Resolutions of committees of the whole shall be transcribed into the minute-book of the Board, but the full text of reports from all other committees shall, when adopted by the Board, be entered in a committee minute-book.

Minutes of special meetings.

(d.) The minutes of special meetings must be confirmed at the next subsequent ordinary meeting.

Order of business.

3. The order of business at all ordinary meetings of the Board shall be as follows, that is to say:—

No discussion upon minutes.

4. No discussion shall take place upon the minutes of proceedings except as to their accuracy, or for the rectification of a clerical error.

Petitions.

5. A petition shall be presented only by a member, who makes himself responsible for the respectful nature of its language, and so far as possible acquaints himself before presentation with the subject to which it refers.

Business-paper.

6. The clerk shall provide every member with a paper on which the business to be transacted at the meeting is fairly set forth, including a list of all motions of which previous notice has been given.

Notice of motion.

7. A notice of motion must be in writing signed by the member presenting it, and delivered to the clerk at least seven days before the day named for its consideration. Notices of motion must be placed on the orders of the day in succession, according to priority of reception.

No business without notice.

8. No business not entered in the business-paper for the day can be discussed or transacted unless after suspension of the general rules, in the manner provided by clause 48 of these By-laws.

When member giving notice is absent.

9. In the absence of a member who has given notice of a motion, any other member present may move or postpone the same, otherwise the motion shall lapse.

ORDER OF DEBATE.

Attendance book.

10. Before the twentieth day of January in each year a list shall be prepared and published by the clerk showing the number of meetings held during the preceding year, and the number of times that each member has attended; and for this purpose an attendance book shall be kept in which each member present at every meeting shall sign his name before the orders of the day are entered upon.

Call of the Board.

11. A member may, without previous notice, move for a call of the Board to consider any subject within the jurisdiction of the Board at the next or any subsequent meeting specified in the motion; and on such motion being passed, due notice must be given in the notice-paper of the day for which the call is made.

Penalty for non-attendance.

12. Any member not in attendance at the meeting for which a call has been made, or at any adjournment thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings: Provided that for reasonable cause the absence of any such member may be excused by the chairman on motion passed by the Board.

Chairman's decision final.

13. The chairman shall preserve order at all meetings, and his decision, subject to the provisions of Rule 14 of these By-laws, shall be final and binding upon every member.

Call to order.

14. (a.) It is competent for any member to rise to order, on which the member speaking must at once resume his seat and remain silent until the point of order has been succinctly but briefly stated by the member who has risen.

(b.) The chairman must thereupon decide the point of order or practice, and if required cite the rule applicable to the case without argument or comment.

(c.) It shall then be competent for any member, not being the member interrupted or the member who rose to order, to demand that the sense of the Board be taken on the point, when the decision of the majority shall prevail, and be final and binding on every member.

Motion may be read during discussion.

15. At any time during a debate, but not so as to interrupt a speaker, a member may require the motion or question under discussion to be read for his information.

Speaker must rise and address chairman.

16. A member desiring to speak must rise and address the chairman, who shall at once call a speaker to order who addresses a member except through the chairman.

17. When two or more members rise to speak simultaneously, the chairman shall forthwith decide which member is entitled to pre-audience, and any member who persists in standing or speaking in defiance of the chairman's decision shall be deemed disorderly.

Speaker must not digress.

18. A member having audience must not digress from the subject of debate.

A member may only speak once.

19. No member may speak more than once on any matter under discussion, unless as the mover of a motion in reply, or with the permission of the Board, in explanation as a personal privilege; but this rule shall not apply to meetings in committee.

Reply.

20. The mover of a motion on notice shall be entitled to a reply before the close of the discussion.

Formal questions.

21. A question may, but not so as to interrupt a speaker, be put to the chairman by a member, or by one member to another through the chairman; but the chairman or a member is not bound to answer a frivolous, untimely, or offensively personal question, or a question of which notice has not been given, or which is asked at a meeting after the orders of the day have been entered upon.

Informal debates.

22. After disposal of the correspondence and before the orders of the day are entered upon, but at no other time, a member may move the adjournment of the Board for the purpose of calling attention to a matter of public interest, when debate may ensue; but an amendment cannot be submitted. Such motion need not be seconded.

Orders of the day defined.

23. For the purpose of these rules, the orders of the day shall be deemed to comprise business arising out of proceedings of the last previous meeting, and motions of which due notice has been given on the business-paper.

Member may protest.

24. A member must not speak disrespectfully of any proceeding or decision of the Board, but he shall be entitled, immediately after the adoption of a resolution and before other business has intervened, to enter his protest against the decision, which protest must be recorded in the minute-book of the Board.

Respect for the chair.

25. Every member who takes his seat at the Board is assumed to recognise that it is his duty to show respect for the chair, and at all times to loyally assist the occupant thereof in maintaining order at the meetings.

Penalty for disorderly conduct.

26. A member who refuses to submit to the ruling of the chairman or to the decision of the Board at any meeting, or who interrupts the proceedings after being called to order, shall be liable to a penalty prescribed for a breach of these By-laws.

Rescission of motions.

27. No motion, the effect of which would be to rescind a resolution passed by the Board during the same divisional year, shall be received or passed, unless a call of the Board has been made for that purpose; and no resolution so rescinded shall, during the same divisional year, be again submitted for amendment or rescission by the Board.

Motions and amendments withdrawn only by consent.

28. (a.) A motion once placed on the business-paper, or moved at a meeting, cannot be withdrawn unless by consent of the Board.

How amendments are put.

(b.) One or more amendments may be proposed on a motion before the Board. When more than one amendment is moved the question shall be first put on the last amendment, then on the next in succession, and then on the original motion, in the inverse order in which they were moved: Provided that when a motion or amendment relates to the fixing of salaries, rates, or other matters of finance, the lowest sum shall be put first, then the next lowest, and so on to the highest.

Must be seconded.

(c.) A motion or amendment not seconded cannot be discussed by any member, except the mover, nor put by the chairman.

Affirmative and negative.

(d.) In submitting a motion or amendment, the chairman must put the question first in the affirmative and then in the negative.

Amendment becomes substantive motion.

(e.) When an amendment is carried, the motion, as amended, thereby becomes a substantive motion, upon which a further amendment may be moved before it is finally dealt with.

Motions of recommendations involving expenditure.

29. Every motion by a member, and every recommendation by an improvement or other committee involving a charge exceeding ten pounds upon the divisional fund, must specify the amount of such charge, carefully estimated upon the best information available, and no such motion or recommendation shall be adopted by the Board until this condition has been complied with.

COMMITTEES.Committees of the whole.

30. The members present at a meeting of the Board may, with or without notice, resolve themselves into a committee of the whole, when the rules governing the proceedings at Board meetings shall, except that a member may speak more than once, and a motion may be carried without previous notice, apply also to meetings of such committee.

Report may be amended.

31. The Board may adopt, reject, amend, or refer back for reconsideration the report of any committee; and when a report contains distinct and separate recommendations the Board may, at the request of a member, take the sense of the meeting upon them seriatim, and amend or expunge any recommendation as they may think fit.

If involving taxation or expenditure, must be followed by motion.

32. The report of a committee may be adopted by the Board on first presentation; but no recommendation of such report shall, if involving taxation or expenditure not previously authorised by the Board, be carried out except on motion after notice.

The standing committees.

33. There shall be three standing committees—(a) The finance committee, composed of one member of each subdivision, appointed from time to time by the Board; (b) Two improvement committees, respectively composed of the whole number of members for the time being of each subdivision; (c) The chairman shall be ex officio member of all committees.

General functions of committees.

34. It is the duty of every committee to inquire into all matters that may from time to time be referred to it by the Board, and to make reports and recommendations thereupon as directed by the Board. A committee must not incur financial liabilities, or in any way commit the Board to any responsibility whatever, without express and specific authority conferred by the By-laws or by a resolution of the Board.

Quorum.

35. The quorum of a committee of three shall comprise two members.

Finance committee—accounts.

36. (a.) Before being passed by the Board, all cash accounts, bills, vouchers, and monetary transactions must be submitted to the finance committee, and be signed by the chairman thereof as guaranteeing their correctness.

Half-yearly statement.

(b.) It shall be the duty of the finance committee to present, before the thirty-first day of January and July respectively in each year, a report showing the whole of the receipts and disbursements of cash on account of the Division for the half-year then last passed, and to certify to the correctness of all cash accounts entered in the books of the Division.

All cash to be banked.

(c.) It shall also be the duty of the finance committee to cause all moneys received on account of the Division to be paid at least once a week into such bank as the Board may from time to time direct to the credit of the Cleveland Divisional Board, and to see that no moneys are paid on account of the Board except by cheques drawn upon such bank, signed by the chairman of the Division and one or more members of the finance committee, and countersigned by the clerk.

The improvement committees.

37. (a.) NOTICE TO MASTERS OF VESSELS, PEARL-SHELLERS, AND OTHERS NAVIGATING ENDEAVOUR STRAIT, THE BOAT CHANNEL BETWEEN HORN AND PRINCE OF WALES ISLANDS, AND NORMANBY SOUND.

MASTERS of vessels, pearl-shellshers, and others Navigating Endeavour Strait, the Boat Channel between Prince of Wales and Horn Islands, and Normanby Sound, are cautioned

The route of the cable across Normanby Sound is north and south, and is indicated by a triangular black beacon (on a hill at Vivien Point) in line with the cable house painted red near the Government Residency, and a white square beacon on Prince of Wales Island.

Special attention to this notice is requested, as telegraphic communication with Thursday Island is of great public importance, the cable referred to having been recently repaired at considerable expense.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CLERKS OF PETTY SESSIONS.

(The attention of clerks of petty sessions is specially directed to clause 19, paragraph 1, of these Regulations, and to the manner in which it is desired that the register of professional costs, and costs of court, should be kept as a general register of "Trust" moneys.)

1. All regulations heretofore made in pursuance of the provisions of "The Audit Act of 1874" are hereby repealed, and the following are substituted therefor:—

8. Collections on account of intestate and insolvent estates, accompanied by the necessary account sales, vouchers, &c., shall be forwarded to the Curator of Intestate Estates and Official Trustee. Whenever a remittance is forwarded to the Curator of Intestate Estates the clerk of petty sessions shall, by the same post, transmit an advice of such remittance to the Auditor-General on the printed form provided for the purpose.

9. When any goods, the property of the Government, are sold by auction or otherwise, the account sales shall be sent to the Treasury with the net proceeds.

BOOKS TO BE KEPT BY CLERKS OF PETTY SESSIONS.

19. Every clerk of petty sessions shall keep the following books, viz. :—

General Cash Book.—

Cash book to contain a complete record of all moneys received.

(A.) The cash book is to contain a complete record of all moneys received, whether as clerk of petty sessions, sub-immigration agent, Registrar of the District Court, agent to the Curator of Intestate Estates, &c., or for police court license or slaughtering fees, fines, District Court fines, immigration deposits, judgments and costs recovered, moneys paid into court, or realised from the sale of goods and impounded cattle; in fact, all moneys, from whatever source derived, whether the property of the Government or trust moneys, are to be duly entered and accounted for; the only exception being sums received as Registrar of the Small Debts Court, for which a separate cash book has been provided.

Receipts to be entered daily.

(B.) All collections specified in the foregoing paragraph must be entered daily as they are received, in the first column of the cash book.

To be balanced at the end of every month.

(C.) The cash book is to be balanced at the close of every month, and the balance in hand (if any) carried forward at the commencement of the following month.

Registers to be posted daily.

(D.) All sums received for fees, fines, licenses, and costs, &c., must be posted daily from the cash book into the proper register either of fees, fines, licenses, or costs, &c., as the case may be.

Bank book to be kept.

(E.) The bank book (at the end of the cash book) is to contain a complete record of all the transactions with the bank, showing on the left-hand or debit side all moneys lodged to the credit of, and on the right-hand or credit side all cheques drawn against, the public banking account. Officers who have had the new cash book (with the cash and bank accounts kept on same page) issued to them, will find full instructions as to keeping it on the fly-sheet.

Cheques to be issued consecutively.
Bank book to be balanced.

(F.) All cheques issued shall be on the official form and taken in consecutive order, the butts, containing full particulars, being retained as office records.

Bank book to be compared with bank pass-book.

(G.) The bank book shall be balanced at the end of every month, and the balance in the hands of the bank (if any), properly analysed, is to be carried forward to the debit of the bank at the commencement of the following month.

Receipts to be taken for all payments.

(H.) The clerk of petty sessions shall, at the end of every month, compare the bank pass-book with the entries in his bank book, and cause any errors that may have occurred to be corrected without delay. Any difference existing between the "pass-book" and "bank book" balances, occasioned by outstanding cheques, deposits, &c., must be duly recorded.

(I.) No money shall be paid away, whether by cash or cheque, without an acknowledgment being taken for the same. Remittances to the Treasury or other Government departments are not subject to this rule. The officer transmitting moneys to clerks of petty sessions, or other public officers, shall on no account fill up a receipt of his own to forward with the remittance. The receipts for these remittances shall in all cases be taken from the book furnished to the receiver, and the sender shall be careful to see that a printed official receipt reaches him in due time.

Register of Fees of Office—Register of Fines—Register of License Fees.—

To be a record of all sums received.

(K.) The foregoing registers are to contain respectively a complete record of all "fees of office," "fines," and "license fees" collected by the clerk of petty sessions in his capacity as such.*

All trust moneys to be posted in register of costs.

(L.) The clerk of petty sessions will find it advantageous to enter in this register—as well as costs of court and professional costs—all moneys awarded by the bench, all amounts received by him for wages and maintenance, all proceeds of Supreme Court or District Court executions, in fact all "suits" or "trust" moneys (i.e., moneys that have to be paid away to a third party and not remitted to a Department in Brisbane). The effect will be that when the books are posted up the balance of the above-named four registers, added to the balances of the stock assessment register, the intestacy and insolvency ledgers, and the register of small debts fees, will always give the balance of the cash book.

To be posted from cash book.

(M.) They are to be posted up from the general cash book at the close of each day, and added up and ruled off at the end of every month.

To be examined by police magistrate or a justice of the peace.

(N.) Immediately after the expiration of every month, the clerk of petty sessions shall submit them to the police magistrate for examination, whose duty it is to compare the same with the general cash book and deposition book, and to certify, by his signature, to the correctness of the entries during the previous month. At places where there is no police magistrate, it is desirable that, whenever practicable, a justice of the peace should attest the correctness of these registers.

* Slaughtering fees come under the head of "Fees of Office."

- (o.) Especial care should be taken to appropriate the various fines imposed in accordance with existing laws. The summary (printed on the inside of the back cover of the fine register) gives the correct appropriation of penalties inflicted for offences which are of more frequent occurrence, and should be carefully studied by every clerk of petty sessions. Fines to be appropriated in accordance with law.
- (p.) In the several columns headed "Number of form (or license) issued by Audit Office," the consecutive numbers printed on the respective forms must be entered. Numbers of money forms to be entered.

- (D.) Each page is to have a margin of about two inches, and each case or entry is to be ruled off across the page. Each entry to be ruled off.

- (E.) This book, which is to be ruled and to have headings similar to those on the monthly returns to the Chief Inspector of Stock, is to contain, under three separate heads, a complete list of all amounts received on account as assessments under Brands, Sheep, and Meat and Dairy Produce Encouragement Acts. The book serves as an office copy of the monthly returns. Register of stock assessments.

2. The tolls, rates, and dues to be demanded and taken on the ferries under the jurisdiction of the said Council shall be those mentioned in Schedule A hereto, and the same, as far as they are respectively applicable to such ferries, shall be legibly painted on boards and posted in conspicuous places on each side of every such ferry, except in the case of the steam ferry for vehicles and goods, when such boards shall be fixed in conspicuous positions on each punt.

Ferry tickets to be provided.

3. Every ferry manager or lessee shall provide tickets for sale to intending passengers, or for the conveyance of horses, stock, vehicles, or goods, which he shall on demand sell in parcels at the rates and in the manner prescribed in Schedule A hereto, and each of such tickets on presentation and delivery shall frank one person, or such horses, stock, vehicles, or goods as may be designated on the face of the ticket, one trip across the ferry for which such tickets are issued, between the hours mentioned in the aforesaid Schedule, provided the conditions of lease or regulations made by the mayor require such ferry to be open and plying during all such hours.

Exemptions from tolls, rates, and dues.

4. No ferry dues shall be demanded or taken by virtue of this By-law for or in respect of the following persons, or any horses or carriages then under their immediate custody, and crossing any ferry, viz. :—

Rights of a ferry lessee.

5. The lessee of any ferry shall have the exclusive right of conveying goods and passengers or vehicles, as the case may be, over the river at his ferry, and no person, without the authority of the Council, shall ply or convey goods, passengers, or vehicles for hire across the River Brisbane, within the Municipality of Brisbane, but nothing herein shall prevent the Council from establishing other ferries during the currency of any lease or otherwise.

Number of boat and of passengers to be painted.

6. The distinguishing number allotted to each boat and the number of passengers such boat is authorised to carry shall be painted in a conspicuous part of the inside of the boat, and such numbers shall be kept legible and undefaced.

Examination of boats.

7. The Mayor may at any time direct any municipal officer or competent person to examine any boat used on any ferry, and such officer may and shall order the manager or lessee of such ferry to replace any such boat, if the same be deemed unsafe or otherwise unfit for the conveyance of passengers, by a safe and fit boat of the same capacity, and such unsafe or unfit boat shall be immediately removed by the manager or lessee, and shall not again be used without the like authority.

Boatmen to be in constant attendance.

8. The manager or lessee of each ferry shall provide one man to be in constant attendance on each rowing boat, and such number of men as are necessary for the efficient working of any steam boat or punt at such hours by day or night and in such manner as shall be specified in regulations which may from time to time be issued by the mayor to meet the exigencies of traffic, but shall not so employ or permit to be employed any youth under twenty years of age.

Passengers not to be detained.

9. No manager or lessee of any ferry, or any boatman employed on any ferry, shall, on the ferry dues being paid or tendered, unnecessarily detain, delay, or neglect to take over the ferry any person, horses, stock, carriages, or goods for whom or which the dues have been paid or tendered as aforesaid, and having once left the ferry landing no boatman shall turn or put back his boat again to the landing he has just left for the purpose of embarking additional passengers, horses, stock, vehicles, or goods, but shall proceed on his trip and land his passengers in direct and due course.

Life-buoys and grappling irons.

10. Sufficient and suitable life-buoys and grappling irons, with the necessary ropes therefor, shall be provided by the Council, and hung up in convenient and conspicuous places at each ferry shed or landing and on board each steam ferry boat or punt, and the manager or lessee of each ferry shall keep the same in constant readiness for emergency.

Lamps and lighting generally.

11. The manager or lessee of every ferry shall provide and keep sufficient and properly lighted lamps on the steps or landing, or adjacent thereto, on each side of the ferry, at all hours between sunset and sunrise, during which the boats belonging to such ferry are being plied, and shall also provide each rowing boat belonging to such ferry with a clear white light, which shall be kept burning, and hung in an iron bow over the boatman's head, at all hours between sunset and sunrise during which such boat is being plied; and at the steam ferries shall provide the steam boats or punts with the necessary deck lights, and such other lights as shall strictly comply with the Harbour Regulations in regard to ferry steamers.

Obstruction to ferries prohibited.

12. No person shall fasten or moor any boat, punt, logs, or vessel, or thing of any kind to the ferry steps, pontoon, staging, or sheds at any ferry, or do or cause to be done any damage to any such property of the Council, or cause any obstruction to any of the ferry boats or passengers, nor shall the manager or lessee of any ferry allow others than intending passengers to congregate on the landings of such ferries.

Extortion, intoxication, and smoking.

13. No manager, lessee, collector of dues, or boatman of any ferry shall demand or take greater dues than authorised by this By-law, or permit any person in a state of intoxication, or any person smoking a pipe, cigar, or cigarette, to enter or remain in any boat at any ferry, nor shall such manager, lessee, collector, or boatman himself smoke in any boat while conveying any passenger, or take into any such boat any article or thing which may be offensive, annoying, or injurious to passengers.

But nothing herein shall prevent the Council from allowing passengers to smoke on the steam ferry boats or punts on that part of the deck abaft the engines.

Responsibility for employees' conduct.

14. The manager or lessee of every ferry shall, if the same be required of him by any passenger or municipal officer, give the christian and surname of any person employed at such ferry, and such manager or lessee shall be answerable for the conduct of such person, and shall be subject and liable to the like actions and penalties for neglect or misconduct or breach of this By-law by such person as if the same had been done, committed, or neglected by such manager or lessee.

Penalties for breach of By-law.

15. For any offence against the provisions of this By-law, the offender shall be liable to and shall pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

CLYDE COLLIERY.

Department of Mines,
Brisbane, 11th January, 1894.

THE following Special Rules, relating to the Clyde Colliery, are hereby published in the Government Gazette in accordance with the provisions of "The Mines Regulation Act of 1889."

ROBERT PHILP.

SPECIAL RULES.

Manager.

1. The manager shall have full control over the officers and persons employed in or about the colliery, and shall be responsible for the due observance of "The Mines Regulation Act of 1889" by all such officers and other persons.

Overman.

2. The overman in charge underground shall be in the pit every day, and shall see that the rules are complied with; shall immediately suspend any person infringing or attempting to infringe any rule; shall give immediate attention to any complaints, and personally inspect any portion of the mine reported to be unsafe; shall give instructions daily to men under his charge, and shall himself observe the following rules.

3. Subject to the control of the manager he shall have full charge of all underground operations.

4. He shall visit each working-place once during each day, and see that every miner keeps his working-place in order and properly timbered.

5. He shall examine every day the different main and district air-currents.

6. He shall see that a sufficient supply of timber is provided and sent to the place appointed for the miners.

7. He shall see that the rules are rigidly observed, and shall maintain over timbering, ventilation, and lighting of the mine a careful supervision, so as to ensure the safety of all persons in the mine.

8. If at any time it is found that the mine or any part thereof, by reason of noxious gases prevailing therein, or from any cause whatever, is dangerous or unsafe, he shall immediately suspend operations in the mine or such parts thereof, and remove all persons therefrom, and instantly report such danger to the manager, and prevent any person (except such person or persons appointed by the manager or overman to remove such danger) again entering the mine or such parts thereof until the danger has been removed and the mine or such part thereof is made fit for working in or passing through.

Fireman.

9. When there is reason to suspect the presence of inflammable gas, the fireman (in the absence of the overman) shall carefully examine every day each man's working-place with a locked safety lamp, and shall mark with chalk the date of the month in some conspicuous place, so that the workmen can see that the fireman has been there; the result of such inspection to be entered in a daily report book to be kept for that purpose.

10. He shall fix danger signals on the outside of any room or place where gas is found to exist, such signals to consist of two pieces of timber placed crosswise (+) and the word "danger" written thereon, and shall keep up such signals until the danger is removed.

11. No person without authority shall go beyond such signals with a naked light or safety lamp, and any one doing so shall be instantly dismissed and may be summoned before a bench of magistrates and fined or imprisoned. Should there be any discharge of gas or any extensive falls of roof in progress, all naked lights shall be immediately withdrawn, and the fact reported to the overman.

12. No working-place containing gas shall be worked until the miners in such places are furnished with safety lamps. No blasting powder or other flame-producing explosive shall be used when safety lamps are ordinarily in use.

13. No smoking shall be allowed in any place where safety lamps are used.

14. No person shall have in his possession any key or other instrument by which a lamp may be opened, or any lucifer matches or other explosive or inflammable substance, where safety lamps are used.

15. Any safety lamp receiving any injury shall be immediately extinguished and brought out to the person in charge, who shall report such accident to the manager.

16. He shall put up or cause to be put up all stoppings, doors, brattices, and other fittings necessary for ventilation, and see that they are kept in good repair and order, and for such purpose shall frequently examine such stoppings, doors, &c.

17. He shall report to the overman or manager all accidents, dangers, or defects which may occur in his district of the mine, and he shall also report any accident, danger, or defects that he may observe to or in any machinery or structure in the mine.

18. He shall suspend any person who attempts to infringe any rule, and report the same to the overman or manager.

Roadman.

19. The roadman shall, at least daily, make careful inspection of the whole roadways and working-places in the mine or part of the mine entrusted to his care, and shall keep the same free from all obstruction.

20. He shall attend to and repair all damages and defects in the roads of the mine, and prevent the passage of men through or under any dangerous roads until the same be made fit for passing therein.

21. He shall see that every manhole or place of refuge is kept clear.

22. He shall see that an adequate supply of timber is kept in the appointed place for the use of colliers.

23. He shall report to the manager or overman any damage to or defect in any fence, casing, lining, means of signalling, or any defect or danger whatsoever that he may observe.

24. In the absence of the overman he shall take charge of the mine or part thereof under his care.

29. Any person refusing to leave the cage when ordered to do so by the onsetter shall be immediately suspended and reported to the manager, and may be fined or otherwise dealt with by the manager.

30. The onsetter shall have a perfect knowledge of the code of signals laid down to be used, shall attend carefully to the down signals, and shall not allow any person to enter the cage until the return signal has been given.

31. He shall not allow anyone to ride with full or empty tubs, nor on the cage-top, and shall take the tubs out on receiving the signal that men are about to descend.

32. He shall not allow anyone to take his gear or tools with him on the cage; all gear or tools to be sent up in a tub to be provided for that purpose.

33. He shall report to the engineman, overman, or manager any danger or defect he may observe in the ropes, chains, cages, guides, lining, or any other apparatus, and prevent the use of same until the defect is remedied.

34. In case of the onsetter not understanding a signal, he shall request it to be repeated.

Banksman or pitheadman.

35. The banksman or pitheadman shall have charge of all persons employed on the pithead, and shall see that the rules are observed by those under his charge.

36. When men are to ascend or descend the agreed signal shall be given and the skips taken out of the cage top and bottom.

37. He shall not allow more than four persons to ride in a single cage nor eight in a double one at one time, and shall not allow any intoxicated person to descend.

38. He shall see that the safety bars, gates, or fences at the pit mouth are kept in thorough repair.

39. He shall have a perfect knowledge of the winding signals in use.

40. He shall not allow any person (except for the purpose of repairs in the shaft) to take any tools or gear with him in the cage. All such gear or tools to be sent down in a tub provided for that purpose.

41. He shall not allow any boy or boys under the age of sixteen to ride in a cage by themselves.

42. He shall not allow any person unless employed underground to descend the shaft without the permission of the manager; shall see that the timber, rails, &c., necessary for each day's consumption are brought to the pit and sent in when required by the overman.

43. He shall report to the overman or manager any danger or defect he may observe in the ropes, cages, chains, or other apparatus, and prevent the use of the same until the defect be remedied.

44. He shall report to the manager any violation of the rules or any contravention of the Act.

Engineer.

45. The engineer shall examine at least once a day the ropes, bolts, hinges, main and cage chains, and shall see that they are in repair, and that the signal is in working order.

46. He shall examine the working engines under his charge, and all machinery connected therewith, and see that the same are in good order and repair.

47. He shall see that the boilers are properly cleaned, and shall prohibit and suspend the working of any boiler exhibiting weakness or in connection with which any valve, gauge, or apparatus is out of order.

48. He shall have entire charge over the pit ropes and chains, and remove, reverse, and repair them when necessary.

49. He shall report daily to the manager all defects and necessary alterations and repairs.

50. Under instructions from the manager he shall, once in every twelve months, test the boilers by hydraulic pressure, and enter the result of such test in a book kept for the purpose.

51. He shall have a perfect knowledge of the code of winding signals laid down and in use, and shall not leave the handles when the engine is in motion.

52. He shall work the cage once up and down the pit before persons descend at the beginning of each shift, in order to see that there is no obstruction in the pit, and that the machinery and gear are in good order.

53. He shall at least once in each week examine the state of the external part of the machinery, head gear, pulleys, ropes, cages, chains, and all other apparatus and appliances in his charge, and record and enter a true report of such inspection in a book provided for the purpose.

Colliers or hewers.

54. All colliers or hewers shall use safety lamps where the manager, overman, or fireman considers necessary.

55. No naked lights to be taken beyond any danger signal placed by the overman or fireman.

56. They shall always be on the alert for the discharges of gas, more particularly in meeting with faults, hitches, or backs, or in cases of a sudden influx of water; and in these cases also a close observation of the state of the roof shall be kept up, more vigilance, if possible, being required on reaching the hanging face of backs or hitches.

57. They shall make a thorough examination of the state of the roof and sides in their working-places before commencing work.

58. They shall be responsible for the proper timbering of their own working-places, and shall, if the supply of timber be deficient, immediately leave their working-places and report the same to the manager, overman, or roadman.

59. They shall leave their working-places in good order at the close of every day's work; shall not leave any rubbish or slack, &c., which shall prevent access to the face of the coal, or in any way interfere with free ventilation through the working-place.

60. No collier or hewer shall enter any other than his own working-place without permission from an officer to do so, and in no case shall he enter into any old workings except by the order of the manager or overman.

61. Colliers and hewers on commencing to cut coal shall set sprags or props where required for the safe working of their places, and shall drive or work their places the width and height they are instructed to do by the overman.

62. On returning after a shot has been fired, every collier or hewer shall carefully examine the roof and side of his working-place, and guard against any overhanging loosened coal or stone.

63. When the colliers have withdrawn or have been withdrawn from any place on account of any danger existing therein, they shall not re-enter such place until they receive an order from the manager or overman to do so.

64. Every collier shall obey the provisions of General Rule No. 2, and no collier shall use gunpowder or other explosive substance, or take any explosive into the mine, otherwise than as prescribed, or use or have in his possession in the mine any iron or steel pricker, or any iron or steel rammer, or unram any charge of powder which has missed fire.

65. Where a person is appointed as weigher, or where the pithead-man is acting as such, it shall be his duty to see that all tubs, hutches, or wagons are properly filled with the mineral contracted to be gotten, and that the proper deductions are made in respect of stones or minerals other than the mineral contracted to be gotten, or in respect of tubs or hutches improperly filled in terms of section 49 of the Act.

66. He shall also afford proper facility to any check-weigher appointed by the men as per section 50 of the Act.

75. Except for the purpose of repairs in a shaft, no person shall travel in the shaft with gear or tools on the cage.

76. Every person shall go in and out of the mine by the main travelling road unless otherwise specially directed by the overman or manager.

77. No person shall enter into any other than his own working-place, nor into any old workings, except by order of the manager or overman.

79. No unskilled or inexperienced person shall work alone.

80. No person shall travel on any incline or road worked by machinery, self-acting or otherwise, while the machinery is in motion, except the person in charge of such machinery or load.

Mean pressure was 0·047 lower, and mean temperature was 2·5 higher, than in November. The mean vapour tension was 0·019 lower, and the relative humidity 7°/o less, than last month. Thunderstorms experienced between 4 p.m. and 5 p.m., 17th; from 3·30 p.m. till 5 p.m. (with hail), and again at 6·45 p.m., 18th; about 6 p.m., 21st; and about 3 p.m. (with hail), 22nd. The shade temperature maximum recorded on the 26th is the highest registered since the Observatory was reorganised in January, 1887.

* NOTE.—The average death-rate of children under one year, as compared to births, during the ten years ended 31st December, 1892, throughout the whole of Queensland, was 12·15. Vide Vital Statistics of 1892.

December, 1893, compared with December, 1892.

Mean pressure was 0·055 more than for the same period a year ago. The mean shade temperature was 0·6 more than last year. The mean vapour tension or absolute weight of vapour was 0·049 less, and the percentage of humidity was 7% less, than twelve months ago. The mean wind velocity was 0·1 more than in December, 1892; while the amount of cloud was 0·4 less. Examining the winds, we find that during December, 1893, northerly and north-east winds were observed 11 and 25 times, as against 12 and 13 times for the previous year. Easterly winds were observed 18 times in December, 1893, and 10 during December, 1892; and the south-east winds were 14 and 15 respectively. The southerly winds were 9 this year, against 17 a year ago. South-west currents were noted 1 and 4 this and last year respectively. Westerly winds were 2 and 2 this and last year respectively, and the north-west winds were 4 this year and 1 a year ago. The amount of calms observed was 9 this year, as against 19 twelve months ago. As for rainfall, we had 1·119 inches in December, 1893, against 7·269 inches in December, 1892.

The Observatory, which was reorganised on 1st January, 1887, is conducted entirely in accordance with the Royal Meteorological Society's Rules.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

THE following Notices to Mariners are published for general information.

HORACE TOZER.

[Extract from New Zealand Gazette, 11th January, 1894.]

No. 1 of 1894.

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 5th January, 1894.

ELEVEN of the crew of the barque "Spirit of the Dawn," which was wrecked on the Antipodes Island on the 4th September last, having remained on the island for eighty-eight days without becoming aware of the existence of the depôt of provisions and clothing for castaways which is established there, it is thought advisable to draw the attention of mariners to the fact that such depôts are maintained by the New Zealand Government on that island, and on the Auckland, Campbell, Bounty, and Kermadec Islands, and that it is proposed to establish one on the Snares.

The following are the positions of the depôts:—

Auckland Islands.—A depôt is placed on the south side of Erebus Cove, Port Ross, and another in Camp Cove, Carnley Harbour. A third will be placed at the head of Norman Inlet the next time the Government steamer visits the islands. One boat is placed on the north-west end of Adams Island, another on Enderby Island, and one will be placed on Rose Island.

Campbell Island.—A depôt is erected in Tucker Cove, Perseverance Harbour, and a boat will be placed at the head of that harbour.

Antipodes Islands.—A depôt is placed abreast the anchor-age on the north-east side of the principal island.

Bounty Islands.—There is a depôt on the principal island.

Snares Island.—A depôt will be established on this island the next time the "Hinemoa" visits the place.

Kermadec Islands.—A depôt is established on Macaulay Island, near Lava Cascade, on the north-east end of the island, and another on Curtis Island, at the head of Macdonald Cove, on the north-western end of the island.

Finger-posts to indicate the direction of the depôts will be erected on the islands.

The Government steamer visits the Auckland, Campbell, Antipodes, Bounty, and Snares Islands twice a year, and the Kermadec Islands once a year.

SEVERAL complaints having been made of ammunition lockers in the Magazine at Toowong Rifle Range being tampered with, it is notified, for the information of all concerned, that in future a Sergeant Instructor or other Non-commissioned Officer will be detailed every Saturday to remain in charge of the Magazine from 1.30 p.m. until firing is completed.

This Non-commissioned Officer will have orders to allow only the Officers and one Non-commissioned Officer and one man from each Corps to enter the Magazine to take out such ammunition as the Corps may require, and as soon as each Corps has replaced and locked up the ammunition which has not been used he will close and lock up the Magazine.

Commanding Officers are requested to lend the Non-commissioned Officer in charge every assistance so as to protect their own ammunition and prevent unauthorised persons entering the Magazine and tampering with the lockers.

Any Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or man attending to fire on a week-day will bring a card signed by his Commanding Officer, stating the amount of ammunition required. This amount will be issued by the Sergeant in charge of the Range from the General Store, the Sergeant in charge keeping the card as a receipt. SATURDAY, 10TH FEBRUARY, 1894.

[No. 29.]

Chief Secretary's Office,
Brisbane, 8th February, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the following Despatch and Enclosure received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

HUGH. M. NELSON.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to THE GOVERNOR OF QUEENSLAND.

Circular.

Downing street, 15th December, 1893.

SIR,—With reference to the Earl of Derby's Circular Despatch of the 6th of March, 1883, I have the honour to transmit to you, for information and publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council modifying the provisions of the Order in Council of the 14th of February, 1883, in regard to the mode of estimating the net registered tonnage of Italian ships.

I have, &c.,

RIPON.

At the Court at Windsor, the twenty-third day of November, 1893.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," therein called the Principal Act, have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's Dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted on their certificates of registry or other papers in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Order in Council dated the thirtieth day of September, 1873, was pleased to direct that merchant, sailing, and steam ships belonging to the Kingdom of Italy, the measurement whereof had, after the first day of July, 1873, been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such ships testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their registers or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships; provided nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any Italian steamship should desire the deduction for engine-room in such ship to be estimated under the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Italian rule, the engine-room should be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules:

And whereas Her Majesty, by Order in Council dated the fourteenth day of February, 1883, was pleased to declare that (the rules for engine-room measurement and deduction applicable to the steamships of Italy having been modified by Royal Decree of His Majesty the King of Italy, dated the thirtieth day of July, 1882) the steamships of Italy, the certificates of Italian nationality and registry of which were dated on or after the twenty-first day of September, 1882, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the said certificates of Italian nationality and registry.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that certain additions should be made to the provisions of the said last recited Order in Council in regard to the mode of estimating the net registered tonnage of Italian ships:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is further pleased to direct as follows, viz.:—That in the event of the net registered tonnage of Italian ships, estimated under the British rules, being denoted on their certificates of registry or other national papers, the same shall be deemed to be of the tonnage so denoted therein.

SOUTH ATLANTIC OCEAN.—ICE ISLANDS AND BERGS.
With reference to Notice to Mariners of 29th May, 1893, on Ice Islands and Bergs in the South Atlantic Ocean,—

Mariners are warned that reports are still being made of the existence of icebergs within the boundary line marked on the diagram attached to that Notice; which diagram is reprinted, with additions to this date, for the information of Seamen. This boundary line roughly stretches from lat. 55° S., long. 53° W., to lat. 40° S., long. 43° W.; and then to lat. 37° S., long. 20° W. To eastward of it is ice.

Ice in this latter position is absolutely unknown, and must be looked upon as a great danger.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Ice Chart of the Southern Hemisphere, No. 1241; South Atlantic Ocean, Nos. 2203, 2202b; Atlantic and Indian Oceans, No. 2483; Also, South America Pilot, part I., 1885, page 3; and Supplement, 1890, relating to South America Pilot, part I., page 1.

6. The contractor will be responsible for all claims for compensation for damage to fences or other property caused by the erection of the line, also for damage so caused to roads or railway works; and if such claims are not defrayed, the Under Secretary and Superintendent is authorised to pay the same from any moneys due to the contractor.

7. Should the contractor fail to proceed in the execution of, or to complete, the work in the manner and at the rate of progress required by the Government, it shall be in the power of the Government, by a notice in the Queensland Government Gazette, to terminate the contract, as far as relates to the work remaining to be done, and to enforce the penalties for the non-fulfilment of the contract; and all sums of money which may be due to the contractor, together with all plant, materials, and implements in his possession on the ground, and all sums of money, whether named in the Bond to be entered into by the contractor or otherwise, as penalties for the non-fulfilment of the contract, shall be forfeited to the Government, and the amount shall be considered as ascertained damages for breach of contract.

8. A deposit of a sum equal to ten (10) per cent. of the total tender cost of the whole work must accompany each Tender, also a memorandum signed by the party tendering, and two responsible persons as sureties, agreeing to be answerable for the due performance of the contract within the time stipulated, in the event of the Tender being accepted, and undertaking in that event that they will severally execute and deliver at the Office of the Crown Solicitor, in Brisbane, within ten (10) days from the notification of the acceptance of the Tender, a Bond to Her Majesty in a sum equal to twenty (20) per cent. on the amount of the Tender.

In cases where tracks may become blocked, all fallen timber must be removed, leaving a clear space of not less than twenty (20) feet in width, following the course of such track.

6. Where the line may be away from the railway line and road, a bridle track of not less than eight (8) feet in width shall be cleared of all logs and fallen timber. This track must be in the centre of the clearing.

The wire to be so stretched that the deflection between any two poles (except in extra long spans) shall not exceed two (2) feet. In long spans the inspecting officer will direct what deflection is to be allowed. Joints or splices to be made as directed, and the wire tied to the insulator with the binding wire supplied.

11. Poles to be sapped under each bracket, and brackets firmly screwed on with three (3) screws each, as directed.

12. At angles or other places, where required, iron top pins shall be used, or wrought-iron brackets shall take the place of the ordinary cast-iron brackets. These materials will be supplied, where necessary, by the Government.

13. Contractor to shift camp for the inspecting officer and his assistant as required.

14. All material used in the construction of this work, or any part of it, must be of the best quality, and, together with the workmanship, are to be subject to the final approval or rejection of the Under Secretary and Superintendent of Electric Telegraphs, or any officer appointed by him to inspect the same.

15. Dismantling old line from Esk to Glamorgan Turn-off, previously referred to, including loop line from Fernvale to Lowood, along the railway line, a distance of 46½ miles, more or less. This work includes taking down and coiling up the wire on the existing line between the points named above, removing insulators, brackets, screws, &c.; delivery of all material at various railway stations on the railway line between Ipswich and Esk.

Specification.

The wire shall be taken down in lengths of one-quarter (¼) of a mile, neatly coiled in a coil with an inside diameter of one (1) foot nine (9) inches. The wire previously to being coiled shall be cleared of all loose ends of tie wire or clips and projecting ends at splices (if any such).

Insulators shall be carefully removed. Contractor will be allowed five (5) per cent. on total number of insulators on line for breakages. If the breakages exceed this number, the contractor will be charged 6d. per insulator for all broken insulators exceeding the five (5) per cent. allowance.

THE following Decree of His Excellency the Governor-General of Netherlands-India, on the subject of the Compulsory Quarantining of Cattle, is published for general information.

HUGH M. NELSON.

COMPENDIUM OF LAWS OF NETHERLANDS' INDIA.

No. 10.—CATTLE—PREVENTION OF DISEASE.

RULES FOR COMPULSORY QUARANTINE OF CATTLE IMPORTED FROM ABROAD.

In the Name of the Queen!

The Governor-General of Netherlands' India.—Heard the Council of Netherlands' India:—To all, who shall see or hear these presents read, hail and greeting.

THAT he, deeming it necessary and expedient in the public interest to have the cattle imported from abroad into Netherlands' India submitted to compulsory quarantine and to lay down rules for that purpose;

Read sections 20, 29, 31, and 33 of the Fundamental Statute for the Administration of the Government of Netherlands' India.

It is hereby understood and enacted:

To order as follows, the Ordinances of 30th May, 1879 (Compendium of Laws No. 176), and of 25th September, 1889 (Compendium of Laws No. 210), and all and every other Regulations or Regulation contrary to these presents being hereby repealed:

1. Cattle coming from places without the territory of Netherlands' India shall only be allowed to be imported into Netherlands' India in such places as shall be specified by the chief provincial authority for each province.

Horned cattle, buffaloes, sheep, goats, and pigs are herein-after included in the term "Cattle."

2. No cattle is to be landed before having been inspected by a Government veterinary surgeon, or in his absence by a competent person commissioned by the chief provincial or local authority.

3. If, on being inspected, rinderpest (cattle plague) or anthrax is found to prevail among the cattle on board, no animals belonging to that cargo shall be allowed to be imported or landed.

If, on the other hand, the prevalence of any other infectious disease should be detected, or any of the animals found to be suffering from any infectious disease, the prohibition only applies to the animals diseased or suspected.

The other animals belonging to the cargo, as also animals belonging to a transport which has not been found to be affected with any infectious disease, are, after landing, to be detained in quarantine for a period not exceeding twelve days.

4. Vessels having animals on board which, by virtue of the preceding section, it is not allowed to land or to import, shall, at the first order of the authority in direct command of the port or roadstead, at once have to leave such port or roadstead, after permission shall have been obtained to land the healthy animals in conformity to the last paragraph of the abovenamed section.

They are only to be re-admitted to the roadstead or into port after the animals diseased or suspected shall have been destroyed and their carcasses sunk into the sea, and the ship and cargo thoroughly disinfected, according to the existing regulations, in the presence of the persons commissioned to that effect by the chief provincial or local authority.

5. Articles connected with cattle, such as hair, wool, bones, hides, skins, horns, and others, having belonged to the diseased or suspected animals named sub. 3, are not allowed to be landed or imported before having been disinfected in the manner prescribed by the preceding section.

6. On the order named in the first paragraph of section 4 not being immediately complied with by the master after notification, all communication with the vessel is instantly prohibited.

It shall be the duty of the local authorities to have such prohibition forthwith notified to the master of the vessel in question, as also to the masters of the other vessels in port and to all and every persons or person proceeding to the port or roadstead.

7. If animals suffering from rinderpest (cattle plague) or anthrax should be found among the cattle detained in quarantine, named in the last paragraph of section 3, during the period prescribed for quarantine, the animals diseased or suspected are forthwith to be destroyed and burnt or buried according to the existing regulations, whereas all articles which have been in contact with the said animals or have belonged to them are either to be burnt or to be disinfected in the manner prescribed by section 4.

The remaining animals, considered healthy, are every time to be subjected to a new quarantine not exceeding twelve days.

This is also to take place in case any other infectious disease should be detected among the cattle quarantined.

8. The importer of the cattle detained in quarantine by virtue of the last paragraph of section 3 and the second and third paragraphs of section 7 is to provide for food and safety thereof, and in his default, at his expense, by the chief provincial or local authority.

All the expenses connected with building stables, destroying, burning, burying, and disinfecting, named in the first paragraph of section 7, and other expenses of the same nature, are also entirely to be borne by the importer.

9. Proper security that the quarantine measures prescribed, in regard to the cattle to be landed, shall be duly executed, is to be given by the importer to the complete satisfaction of the chief provincial or local authority.
